Preparing for Ramadan - Fiqh & Inward Dimensions of Fasting
Saturday 31st July 2010
10am-6pm

Shaykh Idris Watts

Sidi Azhar Hussain

Plan ahead for this blessed month by exploring the inner meaning and significance of Ramadan. The virtues of Ramadan and fasting will be brought forth with an examination of relevant Qur'anic verses and Prophetic traditions.

An in-depth look at the Fiqh of fasting providing you with a distillation of the authentic sources from the Hanafi school will also be coupled with the practical aspects that many of us struggle to balance during this month:

- how can I accommodate this ideal into my life?
- making the most of Ramadan in a non-Muslim or work environment
- special issues for women, new Muslims, students, and people with busy schedules
- how can I ensure the benefits of Ramadan imbue the rest of the year?

Celestial Lights

- Following the best of generations

POSTPONED UNTIL AFTER RAMADAN

10am-6pm

Shaykh Idris Watts
Shaykh Saad al-Attas

In this course you will learn the importance of the sahaba as a generation and get a glimpse into the lives of this unique group of people. We will focus on the ten companions who were promised paradise, extracting from the most reliable historical sources, and learn about the salient features of their lives, how they interacted with the Prophet (Allah bless him and give him peace), their sacrifices, abstinence and worship. By absorbing the lessons from these great men we will be able to bring some of the light that illuminated them into our daily lives.
